

Light in the Landscape

Sharon Benner's exploration of light in the landscape is the theme of a special exhibition of her work in the front gallery this month. Sharon's mastery of light in the landscape comes from her extensive experience painting en plein air, on location at various outdoor sites, where she can observe the effects of light in nature.

During the Main Street Hanover Sip 'n Stroll event on Saturday, June 3, Sharon plans to be at the Gallery to talk with visitors about her work. Stop in and say hello.

Member artwork will fill the remainder of the gallery space. Has it been a while since you brought work in? Now is a good opportunity to show off something new, or return a piece or two that haven't been seen for quite a while.

$99 & Under, Student Work in July

Starting in July and extending through August, the Gallery will once again feature member artwork priced at $99 and under. This annual feature brings value hunters into the Gallery, and gives members an opportunity to offer work priced to sell. Remember, work priced under $100 is subject to just 20% withheld by the Arts Guild.

Also showcased will be artwork by students attending Arts Guild classes. Students: for this exhibit, hanging work must be matted, but need not be framed. Please contact Sara Little to coordinate entries.

Guild People

Outgoing board member Margaret Bria has been a part of the Arts Guild board for many years, as a member and holding a variety of offices, including president. Thank you Margie for your service to the organization. We look forward to your continuing to be active in the Arts Guild.

Exercise Your Member Muscles!

June 26 is the date of the annual Arts Guild membership meeting. Come join with other members, meet the board and elect board members, congratulate the scholarship winner, learn about watercolor painting with a limited palette during a presentation by Eric Miller, enjoy some refreshments, and generally have a good time. We'll get started at 7pm. Let's make this a well-attended meeting – hope to see you there!

Artist of the Month

June's Artist of the Month, Sarah Treusdell, is a familiar face to Gallery visitors: she works at the front desk. The Bowie, MD, native had an art interest from an early age. She discovered scratchboard in high school, and enjoyed teaching herself how to use the medium. Sarah earned an AFA in traditional animation from Delaware College of Art & Design, then a BFA in film from Pratt Institute. That led to freelance work in post-production for TV and film (ask her about her client list!). Unfortunately, serious health issues forced a curtailment of her freelance work.

A move to Hanover with her fiancé brought her to the Arts Guild, where she now works part-time. Being inspired by all the different artists, Sarah delved back into scratchboard, and fell back in love with it, though she says she is still trying to master the human face. You can sometimes catch her working on her latest piece in the Gallery, when she has a few spare minutes.

Scholarship Winner Announced

Morgan Bair-Carr, a graduating senior at Spring Grove High School, has been selected the 2017 winner in the $1,000 Arts Guild annual scholarship competition. Morgan will attend Indiana University of Pennsylvania in the fall, majoring in interior design and interior architecture.

Presentation of the scholarship award is anticipated during the membership meeting on June 26. Look for examples of her work at the Gallery this month. Congratulations Morgan!

Capital Campaign Update

Members, supporters and neighbors of the Arts Guild by now have received their letters asking for donations to the capital campaign to cover the new roof. As of this writing, more than $4,000 has come in. This is a good start, but we have a long way to go to cover the $17,400 cost of the roof, for which we have a $15,000 loan.

All board members have pledged their support to the campaign, and urge all members to do the same. If you haven't responded to the donation request, please take a moment to do so today! It's tax deductible, and you will receive an acknowledgement of your donation for your tax records. We ask you to consider a gift as generous as you are able to make.

Some preliminary work on the roof has started. Now that the weather has decided to settle into a more spring-like pattern, look for the re-roofing to happen soon.

Out and About

→ Eric Miller will have paintings on display at the Franklin County Art Alliance show from June 5-8, 2-7pm, at the Calvary United Methodist Church, 150 Norlo Drive, Fayetteville. The show opens with a reception on Sunday, June 4 from 2-5pm.

→ An exhibit of work by Rosalie Starr will be on display through June 24 at the Sally Little Danyo Gallery of the York Art Association, 220 S. Marshall St., York.

Thursday Paint Outs

A group of Arts Guild members has been going outside on Thursdays to paint en plein air in and around the Hanover area. The painters usually meet at 9am at a designated place and paint the landscape for three or four hours. There is no instructor, but the painters are supportive of each other and help each other if asked.

If you are an Arts Guild member and would like to join the group, or would like to have the group paint at your garden, farm, or home, please email Sharon Benner at www.sharonbennersart@yahoo.com or call her at 717-586-3346.

Classes and Workshops

The 2017 summer schedule for classes and workshops features a number of new selections for children and adults. Check out the descriptions of all offerings on line, or stop in the Gallery for the printed catalog.
