

Hanover Area Arts Guild Artist's Consignment Agreement

Hanover Area Arts Guild (HAAG) members, as a benefit of membership, may display their work in the gallery. Member artists should read the following terms and conditions before submitting work for display. The artist's signature will indicate agreement with and intent to adhere to all terms listed below. Submit this form to HAAG when completed. We will make a copy for you.

Name of Artist (print) _____

Artist # (assigned by the gallery desk staff) _____

Membership dues have been paid in full (staff initials) _____

1. The Artist confirms, by signing below, that all artwork submitted for display is her or his original creation. Art that is a copy of work by another artist, or is a copy of a copyright protected image, is not acceptable. See the provided list of standards for more information.
2. Upon delivery, the Artist will enter information as required in the Inventory binder, located at the gallery counter/desk area. Artist will enter the information on the page designated with his or her name and artist's number. The Artist agrees to keep this information current as new works are delivered or others removed. The gallery staff will note sold items on these pages.
3. The Artist agrees to assign a reasonable retail price to art for sale. All artwork on display must be for sale. Exceptions may be made for artwork displayed as "Artist of the Month" or in some special exhibits. Exceptions require HAAG Board approval.
4. The Artist agrees that HAAG will retain 20% of any work priced $100 or less, and 30% of any work priced over $100. The Artist should take this into account when pricing work. In the event of a sale, HAAG will send payment to the artist within 30 days of the end of the month in which it is sold.
5. The Artist will be responsible for delivering artwork that is properly prepared for display. See the list of standards for information regarding both two- and three-dimensional objects. HAAG reserves the right to refuse to display work that is not properly prepared.
6. The Artist may remove consigned artwork at any time, except in special exhibits as designated by HAAG. For example, work must remain on display for the duration of the Annual Fall Show, and the Spring Show. HAAG reserves the right to make this determination. If the Artist removes work, the gallery staff must be notified and the Inventory Book must be updated.
7. Once a retail price for a work of art is listed in the Inventory Book, it cannot be changed without the direct permission of the Artist.
8. HAAG takes all reasonable care with consigned art but cannot assume responsibility for damage or loss. While HAAG maintains insurance coverage for consigned work, it is the Artist's responsibility to file a claim and provide substantiation for its claimed value.
9. HAAG will not sell damaged items. If an item comes into the gallery with damage, it will not be displayed or discounted.
10. The Artist may consign work to HAAG as long as the Artist maintains membership in good standing. Per HAAG bylaws, upon the expiration of membership, any property left by the former member will become the property of HAAG after 60 days.
11. Copyright and reproduction rights remain exclusively in the control of the Artist. HAAG assumes no responsibility in these matters.
12. The Artist agrees to allow HAAG to photograph work on display for publicity and promotional purposes.

I have read and agree to the terms listed above and to the provided list of standards.

This agreement, effective with the 2023-24 membership year, supersedes all previous agreements.
